

Summer Program Director
Rural & Migrant Ministry
Riverhead, Long Island

Rural & Migrant Ministry(RMM), is looking for an educator who is committed to the empowerment of youth to help develop and direct a two-week summer day program for thirty middle school aged students from rural and immigrant backgrounds.

The Director, working with the Associate Coordinator of the Riverhead Rural Worker Education Center, and RMM's Youth Education Coordinator, will help develop the curriculum for the program, and then implement and oversee the program. The Curriculum will be based in popular education and will seek to nurture leadership development skills within the participants.

Specific responsibilities will include:

1. Help develop the Curriculum utilizing our theme for this summer which is RESISTANCE!
2. Oversee the development and implementation of program (including on-site daily direction)
 - Oversee training of staff, including the review of RMM's "Safe Space" policies
 - Oversee the working agreements amongst participants
3. Direction of all staff including college interns and volunteers
4. Work with the Associate Coordinator to oversee the recruitment of campers and the application process
 - Direct communications with campers and their families
 - Coordination of (and if necessary, direct responsibility for) camper transportation

The position offers a $2,000 stipend for preparation and oversight of the Camp. Housing can be provided at RMM's Education Center in Riverhead, NY to facilitate necessary meetings on site prior to the start of camp, and to eliminate any commute during the two weeks of camp.

The program would run July 23 – Aug 3. (Monday - Friday > 12:00 to 7:00) We will provide heavy snacks upon arrival and dinner before going home

Requirements of the position include:

- Experience in youth development/education
- Experience in Program Management
- Experience in Staff Management
- Bilingual in Spanish and English
- Work experience and a strong commitment to social change process
- A driver's license

This is a part-time, temporary position. (Background checks will be required)

Rural & Migrant Ministry is a non-sectarian, independent 501(c)(3) organization
